

Ashbell Victoria Saunders

July 10, 1929 - December 30, 2021

Ashbelle Victoria Saunders (nee Maloney), age 92 of Kendall Park, N.J. passed away on December 30, 2021. She was born in Spring Hill, Portland, Jamaica to Samuel and Mary Maloney. In Jamaica, she attended Birnamwood School and St. Monica's College. In 1954, she was accepted into nursing school at National Temperance Hospital in London, England. After graduating as a state registered nurse there, Ashbelle entered midwifery school at West Essex Hospital in London and became a certified midwife. In 1956, at the West Indian Student Center in London, Ashbelle met Shelton Steven Saunders who she married two years later. Their marriage produced four children. Ashbelle and Shelton lived in England for eighteen years as she furthered her nursing career while working in several hospitals in Greater London. In 1972, Ashbelle and Shelton moved their family to Kingston, Jamaica in order to help care for her father. While in Jamaica, Ashbelle worked at University Hospital of the West Indies in Kingston. The Saunders family became residents of the United States in November of 1979. In the United States, Ashbelle worked as a nurse in several hospitals in New York including Saint Luke's Hospital, Lincoln Hospital and Columbia Presbyterian Hospital. Ashbelle is survived by three of their four children: Steven with his wife Lisa, Jacqueline and Yvonne; one sister Norma Claire; two brothers Orville Clive with his wife Pat and Donald with his wife Diana; seven grandchildren: Michelle, Grace, Michael, Christopher, David, Cierra and Jaden; and loving cousins, nieces and nephews. Ashbelle is predeceased by her parents Samuel and Mary, her husband Shelton, her daughter Carol and four sisters Pauline, Irlene (Lynn), Merle and Sylvia. Ashbelle was a devoted wife and mother who loved being surrounded by family, sharing family history, telling jokes, singing hymns, listening to Big Band & Jamaican Mento music, dancing, journaling, playing the piano, making desserts and baking. “ From sister Norma Claire,
I have always regarded my sister Belle as my second mother. I can never forget how very caring she was to me when, at the age of 12 years I was quite ill and had to be absent from school for a long time. Also, when I first came to England she made me very comfortable in her home where I lived until the day I got married. She was a truly loving sister and she loved the Lord. She will be sadly missed and may her soul rest in peace.

Sleep on beloved, sleep and take your rest
Lay down your head upon the Saviour's breast
We love you so much but Jesus loves you best
Goodnight, goodnight goodnight.

“ Gentle Aunty Belle, my other mum - it's Kaye here. Throughout my childhood you had a special place in my heart. I remember you singing softly, I recall when you dried my tears and always showed me love. I remember you as a nurse and the 'swish' of your white tights and white shoes when you strolled up to me. Later you welcomed my husband Lloyd: at our wedding- we loved your beaming smile! I miss your hugs aunty. My mummy really looked up to you as our role model. Life will never be the same now that an angel like you has flown. Aunty Belle heaven has her angel back now! Please keep watching over us all. Love you always, from your neice Kaye and Lloyd

“ I remember Mrs Saunders being such a kind gentle soul when I would visit her and Mr Saunders home in NJ several years ago. Jackie would sometimes take me for a short visit; she lived a very good life with a beautiful family; she will be missed; Sending my love to Jackie and all the family and my deepest condolences; much love to you all !!

“ Aunt Belle was a lovely joyous human being. Such a beautiful soul. She really knew how to enjoy a joke. She'd laugh until she cried. Her laugh was distinctive. I can hear it now. I am pleased she was my Godmother and aunt.

I remember when you visited my home in the UK and really liked my net curtains. You wanted the same curtains to take back to the US.

Rest in perfect peace in the blossom of the almighty aunty. You have left us but will never be forgotten. Love you always. Niece and Goddaughter Jennifer
