

Gilbert Dixon

September 26, 1934 - December 18, 2020

I, Gilbert Hovey Dixon, of Belleville, New Jersey lived from September 26, 1934 until December 18, 2020. I passed with the joy of knowing Jesus and with the wealth of belonging to the Kingdom of God and the USA. I was employed by Righteousness and under the Law of Peace. I was blessed with the company of my daughters, Ellen Dekker and Ann Gunning, two faithful husbands and son in laws Chris Gunning and Dennis Dekker. I was generously blessed with the company of my fiancée Rosemary Hislop and also blessed by the mother of my children, Marion Smith. I happily enjoyed the company of my grandchildren: Dennis O. Dekker, Brian Gunning, and Kelly Gunning. Life's enrichment was gained from the Quality of several church families, my closest friends and the best business associates that one could find. I enjoin all who read this to consider sharing the mystical transforming power that is available by merely acknowledging that Jesus is "the way, the truth, and THE LIFE" and learning of My Saviour.

Gilbert worked as Electrical Engineer; he loved working in Quality Assurance for Lockheed Martin, Unitek Corporation and numerous other companies. He was a proud owner of two companies Radiate Christian books distributing company and Addanotion Development of Robotics for the future.

In lieu of flowers please donate in Gilbert's name to Evangel Christian Church, 165 Main St. Little Ferry, NJ 07463.

“ Sorry for your loss. Gil was a great neighbor for many years. He will be missed by the Urzua's

Margaret Urzua - January 27 at 09:19 PM

“ In my young years and memories, Uncle 'Gilbert' was like a big brother to me and my siblings, when he would come to the house to visit. I remember him as funny- even silly and willing to play with his young nieces and nephew. He was always so full of energy, with a great smile, tricks up his sleeve and an easy, happy laugh. Then there was a family move, and half the country separated us as I grew up into adult, parent and grandparent-hood, where visits were unfortunately, few. In a true act of kindness and compassion, there was the time that Uncle Gil arranged for as many of the family members as possible to contribute monetarily to a 'vacation fund' for my sister Susie, who had cancer. He also arranged that as many of us as could, would meet at a large Chinese restaurant with Susie and her family to bless her with the gift and share a meal together. Three years ago, Uncle Gil managed to make it down here to southeast Missouri, to a funeral for my son to say goodbye and be of comfort to the family. One evening, while visiting for the funeral, we gathered at the resort he was staying at with Ann. We talked, reminisced and I remember his parting hug. Later, he handed me a wad of bills and said, "This is for you." Just as I remember him, others knew him too, in the same way; kind, thoughtful, loving and giving. Most important of all, Uncle Gil was a believer in Jesus Christ and as such, a child of God. He is in Heaven now, the place promised to all who would believe in the death, burial and resurrection of Jesus Christ, for the sin debt of all mankind. I KNOW that I will see him again, and there will be a great reunion there! Thank you Uncle Gil, for a life well lived! Until another day... with love, your niece Cheryl Dixon Enyart.

“ Gil, or as some said, Bert got a lot of greetings out of both uses of his given name. He was even handed and did not belabor his grievances. As an inspector his skills were honed by both inclination and schooling. As a willing friend he was a phone call away.

Hasta la vista and muchos gracias mi amigo. Rich Stevens

“ These are some of my favorite pictures from our wedding (Gil's grandson Dennis and mine). He spent a lot of the night dancing with the best of us, and his joy was contagious <3

“ I remember the fine job Gil and my sister Rosie did decorating the hall for my wedding reception. Gil made sure we had a balloon arch, which was a really nice surprise.

“ Thinking of Gil and all the fond memories I have of him with my sister, Rosemary. One favorite memory is how he made balloon teddy bears for my baby shower 34 years ago. Gil was a sweet, kind man who will be missed.
