“ *Don't remember me with sadness, Don't remember me with tears,
Remember all the laughter, We have shared throughout the years.
Now I am content That my life was worthwhile, Knowing that I past along the way
I made somebody smile.
When you are walking down the street
And you've got me on your mind,
I'm walking in your foot steps only a half a step behind So please don't be unhappy just because I'm out of sight
Remember that I'm with you
Each morning, noon and night.*

“ I worked with Albie at Wilfred MacDonald.....I just thought he was a great guy, knew him through those crazy years when he was going out dancing and then he met his Iris!!! One year I was riding my bike on the A/C boardwalk and ran into him and Iris, I met up with them later at night by the Tropicana where they were staying!! So many good memories early 90's when we would have Christmas parties - some of us would meet up at some ones house so we could drink more, what were we thinking!!! And go to work the next day. When I moved from Lyndhurst I had Albie come by so he could see what he could use for his place as he was building a his own bar.....gave him some glasses. I also gave him the bar stools, he said great I will re-stain them----they may have been from the 60's but they were sturdy. Sadly I don't believe he got to finish what he started. I hope that someone in his family will finish the job and then everyone should come over and enough his bar with the stools - I believe that's what he would of wanted!! For his family to be strong. He had plants rooting in water at his service station from cut offs that I had given him, I took it and it continues to grow now in our new Wilfred showroom - he will live on!!!! I know he is in a better place, but it doesn't make any of this better.....I gave him a little hummingbird on a stem to put outside by plants...I think I remember that he had one hanging from his white truck!!

I had a candle lit for him all weekend with a big vase of mums and posted it on fbhe was well deserving of all the prayers, along with Iris and all their kids and family!! Love Patty Carrino.....crazy voice of the receptionist at Wilfred!!
