

Alice Klein

July 17, 1949 - November 29, 2015

Alice “Pennie” Klein, 66 longtime resident of Bloomfield passed away on Sunday Nov. 29 in the comfort of her home. She is predeceased by her parents Fred and Alice, and 4 siblings. Alice is survived by her sister Edna, two brothers Richard and David. She was a beloved aunt to Jackie, Donna, Denise, Kimberly, Sean and Jay, a grand-aunt to Jessica and great-grandaunt to Siarra and Alijah. Alice worked as Quality Control Inspector for over 30 years for Durex Inc. in Union, NJ. Alice was an avid football fan and pet lover, she enjoyed good food and most of all Alice loved spending time with her family. She truly was like a second mother to all. She had a playful personality that would light up the room and will be greatly missed.

“ GLORIA LOMBARDO DEDINSKY
FIRST TIME I MET PENNIE SHE WAS ONLY 10 YEARS
OLD. SHE WAS A SWEET LITTLE GIRL. WHEN HER MOTHER PASSED AWAY AND LATER HER FATHER I FELT VERY SORRY FOR HER SHE WAS SO YOUNG.
BUT SHE WAS ALWAYS WITH ENDA AND FAMILY AT ALL THE FAMILY S
FUNCTIONS. SHE LATER LIVED WITH RICHIE AND WAS A FINE YOUNG
HAPPY LADY. SHE WILL BE MISSED. I AM VERY SORRY FOR LOST. YOU
ALL WILL BE IN PRAYERS. ESPECIALLY RICIE GORIA ANDY AND ALL THE

“ My earliest memories of Penny was of the two of us happily playing together in the sandbox in my backyard in Newark, whenever my soon to be uncle, Jay Sr., brought her over to play with me. She was a delight back then and she remained a beautiful, loving person throughout the years. I will miss her.

Deepest, heartfelt sympathies go out to Edna, Richie and all of the Klein family members who carry her in their hearts.

With love,

My God - thank you much whomever has posted these photos.... I missed so much growing up being with Aunt Penny. When I visited Dad & Elaine on Sunday's I was always around Uncle Jay & Aunt Edna & Uncle Freddy but not Aunt Penny. So thank you so much.

I met Alice at the Seaside Heights boardwalk in the early 70's. We would get together a few times whenever she came down to the shore. I recently found the high school picture she gave me and I wondered how she was doing. I was very sad to hear she passed.
