

Arla A Murphy

October 6, 1929 - March 25, 2015

Arla Annabelle Murphy was born October 6, 1929 in Grand Rapids Michigan the sixth child of Gladys & Raymond Murphy. As a young adult she moved to New Jersey where she lived until becoming acutely ill in May, 2009. Arla loved to collect elephants and had a passion for a pet cockatiel. She moved in with her next to the youngest sibling, Charlene Silberman, who lives in Arcadia, Florida. Over these last five years Arla and Char became really close. Charlene says Arla will really be missed. Char describes her as a gentle spirit. Arla lived a very private life. Arla had pre-arranged details for her final resting place in New Jersey. She was preceded in death by both her mother & father and her brothers Warren Murphy, Leroy Murphy, Delbert Murphy, and Paul Murphy. She is survived by brother Raymond Murphy Jr., sisters Lorraine Alonzo, Phyllis Spear, Charlene Silberman, and Loretta Isenhoff, along with many nieces and nephews.

Family invites all who knew Arla to generous share your stories and pictures for her memorial book that will be available to those who wish to have one.

“ I will miss Annie (as I knew her). She was a good hostess. I found out that I enjoyed doing puzzles. I was honored that she decided to come to my house one day and really enjoyed meeting my pet Sheltie. My condolences to the family.

Gladys Schmidt, Arla's niece, found this picture of Arla with her favorite apple pie from 1976. The pie was made and given to her by Cora Stephan.

I found out Arla's sister Phyllis made this pie for Arla & not Cora. Sometimes when Arla came to MI she'd ask Phyllis to make her some apple pies. Arla would sometimes take one back to NJ with her

This was taken in 1986. These are all the Murphy sisters, from left to right: Phyllis Thrift, Lorraine Alonzo, Charlene Silberman, Loretta Isenhoff, and Arla Murphy. They also had 5 brothers, one of which died in his first year of life.

I miss Annie. I knew her as a friend. I wish I could have said "good-bye" and told her so. I loved helping her put together puzzles and playing games.
