“ Was thinking about you today Danny. Pete and I had a beautiful Christmas and I was thinking about the old apartment and the first time I met you and the first shift I worked with you. I have never met such an honest funny loving friend. I truly wish more than anything that your candle could have continued to burn here on earth much longer, but realize your light was to be a message to those still here to stay on a straight and narrow path because even the good die young. We've stayed straight and living a life that you deserved to live Danny and your our guardian angel. We know you are keeping an eye for us. Merry Christmas to all that are struggling and just know our friend Danny has his eyes on us to keep us straight. We love and miss you. Miss that laugh and grin and how you always listened and miss that excitement. See you again someday my friend

“ Danny,

You came into my life so quickly with this mind blowing love we experienced together. People who really knew you.. well they had to know what an awesome man you were. You would have given the shirt off your back. I would give anything for another 40 years together but all the pain and sadness you passing has brought upon me, I'm so glad I got to know you and shared an important part of my life with you. We may have went through tough times but no one has ever made me feel so loved, so understood, and so special as you did. I hope you and I will be together again one day. Other than my daughter, being with you again is all I look forward to. You were a beautiful man, inside and outside.

All my love always & forever,

*Kara

“ Michele and Family,

I am deeply sorry for the loss of your brother....It was an honor to have met him last month and I really got to know him as a person. He was a very loving, caring and gentle man. I wish I had the opportunity to get to know him better.

Danny is an angel in the skies. He's always looking down and smiling on all of you!

*Love,
Tina*

DANNY, Glenn and I are going to miss seeing you at the diner. You were a great waiter and great person. I remember the fun we had training me to work at Brio restaurant in Willow Brook Mall a few years ago. You were so helpful and fun to talk to. I am really going to miss you. You are resting peacefully with your dad and prayers go out to your family. Love, Carol & Glenn Helm
