March 21, 1929 - April 20, 2023

Dorothy Grace Seigler was born on March 21, 1929 in East Orange, NJ and was a lifelong resident of Bloomfield, NJ. She enjoyed a long career beginning with the General Electric Company, White Laboratories and Schering-Plough Pharmaceuticals. Dottie was truly loved by so many for the humor, kindness, generosity, joyful disposition, and her ever-present smile. There are so many fond memories of stories of her Aunt Grace, trips with friends to Atlantic City, and enjoyable evenings out at Mayfair Farms, Pals Cabin and Essex Fells Golf Club with her beloved partner, Bob Kernan. Cats and ice cream were two of Dottie's favorite things. And don't forget the coconut cream pie, which she always brought to share Thanksgiving at gatherings at the O'Brien home. Dottie was the daughter of Garnett Charles Seigler and Edith Linea Lindal. She is survived by close friends, G Peter O'Brien (Patti), and their children, Terry O'Brien, Jennifer O'Brien Verhey (Brian) and Kate O'Brien; Lois O'Brien Spicer (Jerry) and their children, Christopher Spicer and Mark Spicer; as well as Robert E.
