“ I met Eddie over 45+ yrs ago while attending Rutgers, both of us were members of the R.U. Polish Club.
Eddie was a dear friend and a good natured soul who was always smiling and quick with a laugh.
Rest in peace friend, I was blessed to have known you.
You will be missed.

“ Heartfelt condolences to Edward’s family .
Edward was a very generous man, he signed up to be a bone marrow donor for my father when he was sick, so sad to hear about Edward’s passing. Rest In Peace Mr. Edward.

“ Just learned the sad news. I worked with Ed in the 90s on the Laboratory Robotics Interest Group. Before the Internet we used to scramble together to mail out meeting announcements by snail mail at the Morris Plains post office. More recently, Ed reached out to me during a rough patch for me with some good career and job hunting advice...he lifted my spirits considerably. Sincerest condolences to Ed’s entire family.

“ Edzio, my wife Karen and I met during College and became good Freinds and Members of the Rutgers Polish Students club back in the late 70s when we were Undergrads. We also got married during the same timeframe shortly after graduating and started our families around the same time.

Edzio loved his beautiful wife Krystyna and their two daughters, Kathryn and Justine very much and we can only imagine the terrible pain and loss they are feeling with Ed's sudden, untimely passing! We want Krystyna, Kathryn and Justine to know that we all share their pain and loss with them and pray for them, knowing Edzio will always be watching over them from above and be with them in his Spirit.

God Bless Edzio, Krystyna, Kathryn and Justine.

With Love and our Deepest Condolences,

Karen, Henio, Alison and Ian

I am so saddened to hear of my friend and previous colleague's passing. Ed was a great friend to have and we would often give each other business advice. I will miss his humor so very much. My heartfelt condolences to his wife and two daughters. I will keep Ed and his family in my prayers as he has so often done for me and family.

With Heartfelt Sympathies,
