“ Became friends with Eleanor while walking pass her house. I had my ndog and that was usually conversation or about people we knew. So sorry to see that she passed. She called me in December unfortunately I didn't get back to her while I usually picked up groceries if she needed something. She didn't eat much but loved her cinnomon bread if I could find. Rest in piece Eleanor-no more suffering.

“ Have known Eleanore my whole life. She was a lovely person. I moved away from NJ years ago, so we frequently spoke on the phone. Rest in peace.

“ Hey family and my family had over 100 years of taking care of each other. Although we only reconnected a few years ago, it was my honor and privilege to be able to, in some small way, take care of her. I will miss her terribly. Rest in peace Eleanor. Please tell my grandparents I miss them.

“ *Eleanore was a lovely woman who dearly loved her Beagles! She lived around the corner from the house where my father grew up, we should have met her long before we did, but we are very grateful for the time we had together. She was gracious and loved to talk about a variety of things, but the pops were her heart. She will be sorely missed.

“ Dear Eleanore,
Those of us who had the pleasure to know you will always remember you for your kindness and love for animals.
Rest in peace, my friend.

“ Although we never met in person, Eleanore and I became email friends thru Linda of SOS Beagles, where I adopted Lady (my current dog) from. In the summer of 2019 my Beagle Quiche had recently died of spleen cancer and her dog Heidi had just been diagnosed with the same illness. We would correspond about her treatments and how Heidi was progressing. When Heidi passed away from the disease we kept in touch regularly and would exchange pictures and stories about our mutual love of dogs, especially Beagles. These are a few of my favorite pictures of some of her Beagles over the years who I'm sure she's back together with now.

“ I met Eleanore at Liberty Mutual in 1957 fresh out of high school. Her warm personality led to a lifetime of friendship. Fortunately, I had seen her around Thanksgiving and last spoke with her 2 days after Christmas. We had weekly phone conversations always lasting more than an hour. I will greatly miss my dear friend.

“ Eleanore was a very special person and a valued volunteer for SOS Beagle Rescue. She loved her beagles more than anything and adopted 3 from us, starting with Muffin in 1994. She then started volunteering, making reference calls for us, and every single applicant who spoke to her remarked of her kindness and caring spirit. When Muffin passed, she adopted Lucky and Heidi and became a bit of a lost soul when they passed, but she knew that adopting another was not in the cards for her.

She will be sadly missed here on earth but welcomed at the Rainbow Bridge by all 7 of her beagles who have been waiting patiently to be reunited with her again.

Godspeed, Eleanore -- our time together as friends was much too short.. I'll miss your smile and your phone calls.
