

John Mark Soja

August 29, 1961 - September 25, 2015

John Mark Soja, 54, Bloomfield, NJ passed away on September 25, 2015 surrounded by his loving family. John is survived by his dedicated, soul-mate wife, Anita (nee Stock), 2 cherished children, Alexander and Aniela, his loving parents, Stanley, Sr. and Christine, and loyal older brother, Stanley. The Incredible Mr. Fix-it, Johnny could fashion a repair for just about anything. He was a proud member of the IBEW, Local 3, in New York City and loved his profession and his brethren. Johnny was a tremendous fan of live music in a variety of genres, including jazz, blues, country, progressive rock, rock & roll, bluegrass, Irish, classical. He was a railroad buff, especially of the Lehigh Valley Black Diamond line. Muscle cars held his interest and he enjoyed going to car shows and exhibits. His children were his greatest source of joy and he enjoyed spending time with them playing games, biking, fishing, doing jigsaw puzzles, and sometimes just sitting around doing nothing in particular. Visitation will be on Wednesday, September 30, 12:00 PM – 2:00 PM and 4:00 PM-7:00 PM at Van Tassel Funeral Home, 337 Belleville Ave, Bloomfield, NJ 07003.

“ Johnnycakes! You are one month gone from us, already and only. Not a day goes by, sweet love, when we don't talk of you, Alexander, Aniela, and I, with laughter, tears, smiles, and hugs, and wistful looks all around. You left us too soon but you left us with strength and humor, by the way you lived and the way you died. Thank you for the many years, although they are not enough, of your presence, your character, your talents and foibles. A loving wife and "help mate" misses you beyond words and hums many a tune every day as a tribute to our relationship and the life we built together. Build one we did and filled it with two remarkable children. A fantastic legacy for a beautiful man, husband, and father. We love you!

“ Dear Anita, You don't know me but I attended your fantastic Vegas Wedding as a part of the British contingency who Johnny and yourself made so welcome. You didn't know us but you let us take part in such a wonderful joyous and fun wedding. We still watch the video and talk about you both when we all get together. Bless you for giving us such wonderful memories. We are all so very sad at the tragic painful premature loss of our friend Johnny..... From Lesley Rogers and The Brits

Thank you, Lesley! You helped make our Vegas wedding extra special. We loved having "The British Contingency" take part in our celebration. Johnny always recalled that aspect of the day with an extra wide smile. Thank you so much for taking the time to comment and for thinking of us!

“ Dearest Anita, My deepest condolences to you and your family. I am so very blessed to have attended "the best wedding ever"! I witnessed such deep love and joy between you and Johnny. I will never forget Johnny's big smile and his roaring laughter! He lit up the room! His laughter contagious! Even Elvis couldn't keep a straight face! I remember when Elvis added to the vows and asked you if you would promise to never step on Johnny's Blue Suede Shoes; Johnny was the leader of the pack as he burst out with laughter! And you Anita, trying so hard to be serious and repeat your vows...and you did...but barely! I don't think that Johnny ever got a pair of Blue Suede Shoes, but the one thing I know for sure, Anita...you never stepped on his shoes at all! You and Johnny were beautiful together, so gracious, so kind, so funny; two beautiful awesome children completed the picture of happiness. May Johnny rest in peace and may you and your children and family find strength at this very difficult time. Johnny's laughter will forever echo in all of our memories.

“ Anita, Alex, and Aniela I am so sorry to hear the news of Johnny's passing. I have such great memories of the time we got to spend together at the Cape; in just a few summers you guys grew from being the friendly neighbors in the next door cabin to friends with whom we looked forward to spending our vacation. I loved in particular nights spent with Johnny around the fire talking about music--as many people have noted here, he had such a love and appreciation and knowledge of it. He was well-versed in lots of extremely esoteric jazz and rock arcana--a whole bunch of my very favorite music I only ever discussed with him, because no one else had ever heard it! Johnny, and those times spent with him, will be greatly missed but fondly recalled. All of you are in the thoughts of the McBride family.

Dan McBride - September 30, 2015 at 09:35 AM

Thank you so much, Dan, for the beautiful tribute! I enjoyed listening to the two of you talk music. We so missed you all & Wellfleet this summer. We will be back again & hope to see you, Nichole, and the boys. We'll stay in touch. XXOO

“ Its easy to think of happy memories of this loving man. Two of my favorites are the sweet tooth he had and the pleasure he took in pressing you to have just another bakery treat, and when you were full he packed you a goodie bag for the trip home-- his high energy made it possible for him to enjoy those treats and still stay slim! That same energy was obvious when Anita and Johnny and the kids came to visit me in CT and i was trying to plant a garden around the crop of rocks in my yard. He grabbed my little red wagon, put a child in the back and filled it with rocks to dump in the river--- back and forth for hours, the kids had a ball riding, and pitching rocks and at the end of the day i had a garden bed ready to plant. And Johnny wasn't tired!! A special mani feel lucky to have known him...🍀💕

“ I host a weekly rock radio show. John was always one of my first callers. We chatted about the music and would reminisce about performances and concerts from the past. He would always enlighten me regarding radio and television events that were related to "our" music. He loved his progressive rock and I tried to quench his musical thirst with the selections I played on the show. I will remember him as a loyal listener and a friend. I will pause for a moment each and every Sunday between 9:20 and 9:40, which is usually the time he would call. I know he will still be listening ! "All The Best" ! Peace, love and comfort to the Soja family. "After the song is over, the dance goes on, so dance away. When all is said and done, remember what's been given, not taken away" (from the song "Never The Same" by the band Echolyn).

I will so miss Johnny's raunchy but charming jokes, his ready smile, his unfailing ability to keep my friends and family at ease. Thank you, Johnny, for such wonderful memories of Musical Box, the Genesis reunion, and Tom Jones concerts! You even lent me your Incredible Mr. Fix-It talents when repairing my dryer and my car when I was a struggling single mom! Our family will be forever grateful to you, Anita, for making it possible to have met Johnny and enjoyed his warmth, kindness, generosity, and humor.

Lifelong Bonds

More than the blood of my blood. He is my friend, my rock...my brother.

Brother, in times of need, never judging, always there.

My Brother, could, would, always make things right.

Brother, never made much ado, about the task at hand...he just did it.

Brother, who lifted me, when I was down.

Brother, who brought the laughter, amid the pain.

Brother, the word he never spoke...was 'no'.

Brother, who had the answers, to my questions.

Brother, who by example, did walk the path of right.

*Brother, in all my years...in all my life, never have
I met another...like my loving brother.*

“ When you worked with John or you were working in an area where he was, he made it fun. You almost didn't realize you were at work! I had the privilege to also watch a great journeyman create beautiful work. Most of all, I will always remember the way John would ask me about my family, which would show his concern about others. He was not only kind, he was generous to others who needed an extra hand when they were in a bind at work. Christina and I will always remember him fondly. Thank you John for all the happy times you gave us and for you making work fun though sometimes we didn't realize it. We will never forget you. Rich and Christina Olearick

“ Dear Anita, Alex, Aniela and the rest of the Soja family,

We are heartbroken at the news. He was such a warm, sweet man. And his love of music was contagious, and I will always remember fondly how much I enjoyed his excitement as he would regale me with the latest concert he and Anita attended, or the terrific program he recently listened to on the radio.
