“ Thank you for all the loving advice you gave us throughout the years. We particularly thank you for insisting that William took music lessons; he didn't want to go at first but after just a few visits he was already learning new songs on his own. He became quite good at guitar playing thanks to you.

I also remember how fond you were of genealogy and learning about your family tree, I will now look into my own and will be always be thinking of you with every branch that I discover.

We will miss you.

Rest in peace,

Veronica
