

Kassie Christine Noble

December 29, 1989 - December 25, 2020

Kassie Christine Noble passed away at the age of 30 on December 25, 2020. Born in Queens, NY, Kassie grew up in Bloomfield, NJ, and resided in Seattle, WA. She was the daughter of the Late Mrs. Rachelle A. Noble and is survived by her grandmother, Marilyn Kerr, and her beloved friends.

Kassie was accomplished in all aspects of her life. She was a devoted Christian and attended the Goodwill Missionary Baptist Church in Seattle, WA. She was a career Executive Assistant and worked for top organizations, including Amazon, Hilton Worldwide, and the American Marketing Association. Outside of work, Kassie enjoyed volunteering and being of service to seniors; she dedicated most of her Saturdays to cleaning the homes of the elderly.

Kassie was passionate about health and wellness and leveraged her background as a certified personal trainer and a nutritional specialist to motivate others on their journey towards greater well-being. As an avid rollerblader, one of Kassie's proudest moments was completing the 2018 NorthShore Inline Marathon. She was intellectually curious and quite knowledgeable about a variety of topics; and was always ready to discuss (or debate) any subject. Kassie's favorite flower was the sunflower, and her favorite animal was the sloth.

Kassie loved traveling and was always up for an adventure, whether solo or with friends. She toured over 20 countries in her lifetime, with Mexico being her favorite place to visit. Kassie enjoyed painting and writing and was in the process of completing her first book.

With a bright smile and an infectious laugh, Kassie brought warmth wherever she went. Kassie was brilliant, humble, courageous, dynamic, strong, discerning, authentic, stubborn, creative, adventurous, witty, fair, and full of wisdom. Kassie was a lover and a healer. She lived life to the fullest and always strived for excellence.

May the memory of Kassie be a blessing to all who knew her.

“ Kassie,

At your christening in 1990, all I saw for your future were days filled with love, joy and adventure. It seems you were granted all of these – along with the customary slings and arrows that life bestows upon us all. In your adulthood, your voice, demeanor, humor and passion reminded me so much of your mother that it simply took my breath away. (I thought she would be so proud of you). You shared your testimony with me. Your Faith was one of action: Loving, Doing, Giving and Receiving of the fruits of the Spirit. I was humbled to hear of all that you were doing and planned to do in service to others. I am heartbroken at your passing. But here is what I know. God has called you home. To the people you loved – your father Andre Noble, brother James Noble, Grandmother Marilyn Kerr, extended family and friends - my deepest condolences. Rest in Power my niece. “May bands of angels sing thee to thy rest.”

Kassie's beautiful smile, warm, positive and energetic presence lit up any space she was in. These photos were some of many, great moments I was lucky enough to share with her (during her time in Seattle). Kassie, you will forever be remembered in my heart and memories. Peace and healing prayers to all who got to know her! ❤️
