“ Dear LaLa; I'm going to miss you sooooo much my love . I'm glad for all the years I spent coming to Florida and being with you and papi chulo. You dancing with me and showing me how to make some of your delicious food.. All the love you gave me and my son . I know you are at peace and until I get there , continue to watch over our family. I Love You LaLa

“ I have many beautiful memories with Lydia and her family. Memories from life in NJ back in the 60s until the present. We shared beautiful moments with grandmother, Lipa, and her.

“ I knew Lydia for more than 50 yrs. and through those years we kept a very civil Mother-In-Law and Son-In-Law relationship, with mutual respect that was never tried. I can honestly say she never interfered in our marriage and was always a support, when needed. My only regret was not thanking Lydia for the wonderful wife, mother and grandmother (Evelyn) she allowed me to marry... Thanks Lydia, rest in peace.
