She is survived by her sister Olinda Correia Abrantes, and her two brothers Joaquim Guilherme Correia Pinto, and Joao Correia Pinto. She was born on April 1, 1932 in Girabolhos, Portugal. Together Maria & Jose shared 67 incredible years of marriage. They created their legacy of having 6 children, 10 grandchildren, and 7 great-grandchildren. Alongside her husband Jose, Maria created countless memories in teaching their children gardening, enjoying the sport of soccer, and watching The Price is Right. Her hobbies include creating things out of nothing, whether by knitting, cooking the most delicious meals, or most important her desserts. She never missed a birth Date or a phone call and she was always ready to share knowledge and advised her family best. She will be remembered for her infinite wisdom, the power of strength, and kindness. Her memory will live on through endless stories and mainly through the love that she gave which will remain in our hearts forever. She is finally reunited in open arms with her husband, parents, and many of her loved ones. She will be tremendously missed.
