“ My Brother

Mark, Who woke me up every Christmas Morning to let me know Santa came. And put all my toys together before he touched his own.

Mark, Who walked me to our local Library for my first visit with his card in hand because he knew I was entering 1st Grade and would be learning how to read. (The Cat in the Hat)

Mark. Who taught me true care and concern, not just for people but, for broken animals who needed mending. As I would watch a young boy do everything he could do to fix it.

Mark. Who spent relentless hours upon hours day after day in a hot room (no air conditioning back then in our house anyway) teaching me how to hustle. (Disco Days for those who do not know what The Hustle is...lol)

Mark, Who at the time had no children of his own pointed out to me that my son's one pupil was large than the other...and proceeded to badger me every hour till I called the Eye Dr. (It turns out my son was ok...)

That was and will forever be My Brother Mark. And now Heaven will reap the the benefits of having A friend, A Brother, A Care Giver and a Teacher. Your work on Earth is done. Can not wait till we meet again. I Love you, and will carry everything you taught this little Sister with me for the rest of my days.

Thank You.
