

Mary Lucille Matarazzo

July 1, 1932 - April 7, 2020

Mary Lucille Matarazzo passed away on Tuesday, April 7th at the age of 87. She was a loving and devoted wife to the late Henry Matarazzo. Mary met Henry 67 years ago while working at Liberty Mutual. They were married and had four children who they raised in Bloomfield, NJ. Their cherished memories include happy times spent at the New Jersey shore with family and friends and the twelve years they enjoyed together in North Carolina before returning home to their children. Mary was dedicated to her family, church and neighbors. She will always be remembered for her special Sunday gatherings. As a founding member of Saint Thomas The Apostle Church in Bloomfield, NJ, she was active in the Rosary Society, taught CCD and spent many hours decorating the church for Liturgy and holidays. She was educated, hard working and driven, finding her vocation as a banker for Provident Savings Bank, her most favorite job. She was a trusted advisor to her clients, who would wait in long lines for Mary's guidance on how to invest their money. Our mother was an outstanding cook and incredible baker. We will especially miss her biscotti, which remains a secret family recipe. She is deeply loved and cherished by her family. We are forever grateful to have had her and received her caring love, which she gave unconditionally. Her sacrifices made our lives better and her spirit molded us to be who we are today. Rest in peace our Mother and Grandmother. We love and miss you so. We look forward to seeing you again. Mary is survived by her four children: FrancesAnn and Peter Weedfald, Nicholas and Barbara Matarazzo, Diane Matarazzo and Dennis LaPointe, and Marybeth and Michael D'Argenio, and her five grandchildren: Tara Weedfald, Mark Matarazzo and his wife Maria, Michael Matarazzo, Morgan D'Argenio and Madison D'Argenio.

“ Cousin Mary was a very special lady. I have so many wonderful memories of times spent together. I remember delicious home cooked dinners, attending church services to laughing out loud at exercise classes. She truly loved life! I'm so happy to have shared many memorable moments with her.
Rest in Peace Mary.

Sending our sincere condolences to the family.

“ Mary was a great cousin. I will never forget she sent me roses for my Sweet 16th Birthday! Every year she would send me a birthday card. Always enjoyed our conversations and laughs on the phone. She will truly be missed!
Love,
Cousin Lucille

Our condolences to the family. Be assured of our prayers!
