“ Crossing the Bar-by Alfred, Lord Tennyson

*Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea,*

*But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.*

*Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark;*

*For tho' from out our bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crost the bar.*

Rest in Eternal Peace Michael, you will be greatly missed by all

“ My condolences on your loss. Flo was a good friend to my mother and loved Michael very much. You know we all love you and are here for you. Let us know if you ever need anything. Michael was a good man and will be missed. He's up in heaven with my mother and they are both watching over us. God willing we'll all reunite someday.

*Love,

Ron and I so wanted to be first in line this year to send love and blessings for Mike's 80th birthday in July. We were good friends. Wishing goodness to Cathy and all.

“ I've known Michael's name all of my life, having seen his published photos, but I only got to know him personally in the last five or six years as we chased the same steam locomotives in my neck of the woods in central Pennsylvania, Reading & Northern 425 and Central of New Jersey 113; although our political views occupied diametrically opposite parts of the spectrum, our discussions of those issues always took place amicably, and Michael always had a twinkle in his eye, no matter what he threw at me. He and his wife, Florence, became friends of mine, and I will miss him greatly. I hope his archive goes to a good home.

Mike was my working buddy in Morristown in the 1970's. One time, with me driving, we chased steam locomotives together. Rest in peace, Mike.
