“ Norma helped care for my grandfather when he was ill and dying, and then she helped my mother for many years. She was a joy to be with - so vital, so enthusiastic, so much fun. She had been through a lot in her life and I am so grateful that I got to know her. Even though I haven't seen her for years, I miss her. The world is a better place because of Norma.

“ Norma opened her heart and her home to me - took my son and me in for Christmas dinner once because i am a lousy planner- also Easter dinner one year with her family- also many random visits- such lovely memories she is certainly going to be missed. ❤️💔

“ As you all know, Norma Milian was my mother in law for 43 years. I feel blessed to have had her in my life for that amount of time. I was 16 when Frank brought me home to meet the family, and i realized she was the strongest woman I had ever met. Fun, caring loving but not afraid to speak mind...which I found out when the first time at the house I didn't bring cake. not a good beginning, and to this day I always make it a habit of bringing cake wherever I go, I hear her in my head.. The second thing I learned was the beauty of her inviting people that we didn't necessarily know to come in and share the holidays and other parties with her family. The last thing I learned was her love for my mother their relationship was beautiful. I was so appreciative of that. When my mother moved up to NJ from Fl. my mother in law invited my mom to all the parties. My mom was always so excited to go to the Milians', for a party, She was hugged and kissed and handed a glass of wine as soon as she arrived. At some point my mother had difficulty eating and cooking for herself, but every time before we left the party my mother in law had Styrofoam containers all prepared for my mother to take home. There was always enough food for two weeks. I have always regarded my mother in law as a second mother. I have learned many life lessons from her and I will always be grateful. She will be missed.....In conclusion, let there be cake in heaven. Love, hugs, kisses, Sue
