“ So many I'll go with the first day I met him. I was 15 and he was 17 at Joe's studio in Clifton. Walking in he was playing Tom Sawyer... to perfection. Miss him always..

“ Oh how I loved this kid..to me always a kid, I remember when we were in high school, Paul was always the kid , and we loved that guy. We never minded him being around because he made us laugh, he made us realize how ridiculous we were...he brought sense into the conversation and we were always wondering, how does this KID know so much? He just did, ...he was so on top of it all...your mom couldn't have taken it, ..my heart is so heavy for you Les, Rudy and Elaine. God will give you strength to keep it together through this difficult time , but it won't be easy. I'm sorry I can't be there. Hugs to all of you. Facebook posts aren't working for me so I'm glad I found this. I love you and we will miss him so much and his wit. You all make us laugh but he really took the cake. To think he cracked you up until the end. You were all there for him...he felt safe and loved and God bless you all for that. Norma and mr.C would have been so proud of you for taking such good care of him. Xox Karen P Borbone
