“ I will forever remember our conversations on my front stairs my friend. Your funny stories and kind words about Jackie live on in my memories. You always ended every conversation by saying if I ever needed anything I could call you. Thank you for that. See you one day again I'm sure.

“ I want to live,
I want to give I've been a miner
for a heart of gold.
It's these expressions
I never give That keep me searching
for a heart of gold
And I'm getting old.
Keeps me searching
for a heart of gold
And I'm getting old.

I've been to Hollywood
I've been to Redwood
I crossed the ocean
for a heart of gold
I've been in my mind,
it's such a fine line
That keeps me searching
for a heart of gold
And I'm getting old.
Keeps me searching
for a heart of gold
And I'm getting old.

Keep me searching
for a heart of gold
You keep me searching
for a heart of gold
And I'm growing old.
I've been a miner
for a heart of gold.

“ Riding the train at Van Saun Park, making sure to scream in the tunnel. Our walks where we would just talk about life and quote Monty Python and Young Frankenstein. Our shared love for music, particularly music from the Mama's and the Papas ...and anything from the 60's. My first hockey game. Lots of HOCKEY AND BEER!!! Your bond with Logan and how we all would just laugh for hours on end. You randomly driving up while I was walking home from school - and handing me my first David Bowie and Bjork cd's. You loved with all your heart- you had the BEST laugh. I will forever miss our hour long phone calls about... anything or nothing. Your love for Jackie and how pure it was- "she's smoking hot, I'm so lucky, aren't i?!"
Your home was like my home.
