

Rosendo Tavaréz

May 23, 1948 - September 17, 2015

Rosendo Tavaréz, age 67 of Bloomfield, NJ, passed away on September 17, 2015. Rosendo is survived by his beloved wife Silvia Tavaréz (nee Morante), six wonderful children, 2 sisters, 6 brothers, 9 grandchildren and many family members and friends. Rosendo is predeceased by his loving parents Octavio and Celia, and his brother Hector. In 1967, at age 17, he moved to America from the Dominican Republic in pursuit of the American Dream. His first job was as a welder for Fox Fence in Clifton, of which he eventually became the owner in 1994. After 27 years of living his motto of “Hard Work Pays Off”, Rosendo spent his final years doing what he loved. He was a charming and dedicated man, whose absence will be felt by all those lives he touched.

“ In memory of Rosendo, great person, amazing cousin who appreciated life for his kids. I will miss our long political debates, where you successfully achieved the last word. Your endurance and professional success will always be remembered. Thank you for being a great support in Hectors time of need. Having his cousins and family around him pushed him through to another day. I can imagine in heaven you are both continuing the debates over politics, baseball and life in general.
