“ I worked with Stacia in the student center at Montclair for many years. She worked directly with me and fatima making all the sandwiches and salads for the campus. She was the hardest worker I ever met. When my children came to visit me at work, Stacia would always pinch their cheeks and just love them so much. She would make pierogi at home and bring to work for my family. We were always on the same team when we had our pumpkin carving contest, and we almost always won. Such a big heart ❤️ I'm so sad she didn't have more time after retiring to spend with her children and grandchildren she always talked about. Although I haven't worked at Montclair for 7 years, I would stop by to visit and always had a big hug for Stacia. She would always say, "Larry, when you come back to work with me" I will miss you tremendously Stacia. Below is the picture when we won 1 of the pumpkin carving contests. I dressed everyone in tablecloths.
