

Stephen DiMarzo

August 23, 1953 - September 25, 2020

Stephen DiMarzo, 67, peacefully passed away on Friday September 25, 2020. Originally from East Orange, N.J., and a longtime resident of Bloomfield, N.J. He was the son of the late William and Joy DiMarzo. Stephen attended grammar school at Our Lady Help of Christians, East Orange, N.J. where he was an altar boy, and subsequently a rectory boy at the church. Upon graduating High School at Clifford J. Scott H.S. (East Orange, N.J.) he furthered his education at Huron College in South Dakota where he received his Teaching Degree. He worked as a teacher at Orange Middle School in Orange, N.J. until retirement. Stephen regularly attended Bloomfield Town Council meetings, and frequently addressed the Council of his citizenry concerns, and ideas. He enjoyed going to the Newark Penn Station area where he would walk around distributing sandwiches and drinks to the homeless. One of his favorite activities, besides telling jokes, was driving around town while listening to music, and waving to the many people he knew. Stephen is survived by brothers Billy, and Mark, his half sister Susan, his niece Patricia, and nephew William.

Though miles have separated us all, better to have known than not to have known at all. After reading his life story, he certainly had that Di Marzo spirit. Beautiful boys. Thank you for sharing. 🙏
