“ Steve and I grew up across the street in Erie PA in the mid 1950s. Later in life while my wife was teaching in Virginia Beach, she met his wife Chery and I met Steve again! We both were career military guys and I was so happy to share military stories. Steve had a sense of humor, we laughed at many of the jokes we told, but more importantly, he was a good man, one in which few could aspire. My thoughts and prayers are with Chery and her children. Rest in peace, Steve.

“ Dear Cheryl and family, How sad and I am to learn of the passing of your dear husband. Please know that you all are in my thoughts and prayers during this time of profound sadness and loss. I pray that the tears you shed today turn into smiles remembering the great times shared.
May God hold you all in the palm of his hand and may your beloved Stephen rest in peace.

“ Pat and I are deeply saddened by Steve's passing. A true friend who never knew a stranger whose life we were privileged to share over the past four years. A man who had a profound love for life, his bride Cherie, and for his children, grandchildren, and friends. He will be truly missed by all who came to know him.

Rest In Peace good friend.

Ski Monoski was one of the finest officers I ever served with and he and Cheryl were a great addition to any group gathering. He was in my operations office of an attack helicopter Bn...and in this office were several Ski,s: Monoski, Sosnoski, Petrosky, and an Mexican whose name was Carralus and they named him "Carralski". We send our love and thoughts to Cheryl and the girls along with our sincere condolences. RIP Ski.
