

William Edward Robertson

May 11, 1939 - August 3, 2025

William “Bill” Robertson, 86, passed away on August 3, 2025, in West Orange NJ. Bill is survived by his daughter Holly Robertson and her husband Peter Mock, two grandchildren Zoe Mock and Griffin Mock, and his ex-wife Valerie Robertson. Originally from East Flatbush, Brooklyn, Bill's life took him to Montclair, NJ, coastal Maine, his beloved city of New Orleans, and then back to NJ. After graduating with a BA from St. Francis College (then in Brooklyn), Bill earned an MA in philosophy from Fordham University and MBA from New York University. His career path took him from Systems Analyst in NYC and Boston, to art-gallery owner in Rockland, ME, to Adjunct Professor in HR, Business, and Management in both Maine and New Orleans (he wisely chose to summer in Maine and winter in NOLA). Bill loved stamp collecting and long-distance running (the latter of which he started in his 40s) and competed in many marathons, including NYC. Bill was a Unitarian-Universalist and a card-carrying member of the ACLU.
