

Wilson Hernandez

November 12, 1956 - April 28, 2017

Wilson Hernandez, 60 of Belleville, NJ passed away suddenly on April 28, 2017. Wilson would like to let you know that his work here is done. He received a call and an offer he can't refuse from which he won't be returning. This offer comes with a special bonus, a reunion with family and the Lord. His new mission takes him to a new place where music, dancing, laughter and love are guaranteed. He joins his parents Pedro & Noemi Hernandez. Wilson is survived by his loving daughter; Laurita and his siblings, Norma Garcia, Raquel Cardona, Harold Hernandez and Dwight Hernandez. He is also survived by his adored nieces and nephew (Iris, Monique, Raquelita, Mari, Normita, Natalie, Rebecca and Daniel). His infectious smile and pure heart will be sorely missed.

“ My deepest condolences, to Laurita, Norma, Raquel, Harold and Dwight. The passing of Wilson, to me, is a time to reflect and remember what things he has meant to my life. Growing up, Wilson was awesome! I remember back in 1970, when my family lived in 10 Elliot Street, it was Wilson who introduced me to the world of comic books and to comic book art; he would draw the superheroes exactly the way they appeared in the comic books. I remember the X-Men were his favorite, especially the Beast. I remember when I would go with my dad, to visit the family; Wilson would always be boxing somebody in the neighborhood, lol. If I am not mistaken, Wilson was the first male cousin (of my generation) to attend college, Rutgers, I think. He loved the music and talent of Ray Barretto. Wilson was very smart, very athletic and very talented! Like I said, he was awesome!
To my cousins, I thank you, for all the love you supported Wilson with. I believe we will all be together one day, dancing, drinking, laughing and joking around with each other. Till then, we will rely on our happy memories. Wilson is just the latest one invited to the family re-union in Heaven.
Love,
Henry
